

THOUSANDS MARCH
THROUGH THE HUBIMMENSE PARADE OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Boston Witnesses the Finest Turnout That the Order Has Ever Made—Streets Thronged With Spectators How the Divisions Were Formed in the Parade.

Boston, Aug. 28.—Seven hundred and fifty thousand people saw the parade of over 25,000 Knights Templar yesterday, and with one accord pronounced it the grandest pageant ever witnessed in Boston. Trains from every direction brought thousands of uniformed Templars and their friends to swell the host. From every state commanderies began to arrive at an early hour, and thousands of spectators came with them. Everywhere within a radius of twenty miles of the state house the day is practically a holiday. Most of the factories in nearby cities are closed, and the operatives helped to swell the crowds who watched the procession.

The lines of the parade were formed in thirteen divisions in a column of double sections. At 9 o'clock the commanderies of the first division began to gather and by 10:30 the long line was in motion, the signal for the start being greeted by the cheers and salutes of 10,000 people.

As the great body of knights moved down Commonwealth avenue the spectacle was in inspiring one. The music of 100 bands and the applause of thousands of people filled the air; gaily bedecked horses pranced at the head of each division, while the contrast of the dignified black cloth of the uniforms, the waving of the rich plumes and the silver and gold emblems, which are conspicuous in the Templar uniform, combined to present a scene that was pleasing and impressive.

The first division which was led by Right Eminent Sir Samuel C. Lawrence, grand commander of the grand commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, as chief marshal, with Right Eminent Sir Charles C. Fry as his chief of staff and fifty-four of the most prominent knights of the Boston commandery as aids, included the representatives of the grand commanderies of the United States, as escort to the grand marshal with ninety-three aids from the most prominent commanderies of America; Boston commandery, Detroit commandery as special escort to the Most Eminent Grand Master Hugh McCurdy, the officers of the grand encampment in carriages; the members of the grand encampment in carriages and subordinate commanderies.

The second division was led by the Eminent Sir Eugene H. Richards, Deputy Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, as Chief of Division, with Sir Albert H. White as Chief of Staff, accompanied by thirteen aids and commanderies of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Commanderies of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island composed the third division. Twenty commanderies of Massachusetts and Rhode Island composed the fourth division.

New York, Virginia and Vermont represented the fifth division. Eminent Sir Arthur McArthur, Grand Captain General of the Grand Commandery of New York, was at the head as Chief. Eminent Sir John Hatch, Grand Generalissimo of the Grand Commandery of New Hampshire, led the knights of New Hampshire and Connecticut, who made up the sixth division. The Western states were represented in the seventh division, Ohio and Kentucky being in line with the Grand Commandery of Maine. Ohio sent seventeen commanderies, Kentucky three. Right Eminent Sir Edward B. Spencer, Grand Commander of the Knights of Pennsylvania, was Chief of Division 8, and Chief of Staff Winslow Kuhn was assisted by twelve aids. The Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania had the right of line in this division. Pennsylvania, India, Washington and Texas were represented in this division.

The commanderies of Michigan alone made up Division No. 9, of which Eminent Sir Charles R. Hawley, grand sword bearer of the grand commandery of Michigan, was chief. Twenty-four companies from the state of Illinois, led by Eminent Sir Henry H. Montgomery, composed the tenth division. V. Em. Sir Augustus M. Webster, chief of staff, was accompanied by eight aids and adjutants. The eleventh division was led by Eminent Sir Harrison Dingman of Washington and his chief, Eminent Sir Simon H. Merrill, who was assisted by five aids. The right line was given to California No. 1 of San Francisco, followed by Oakland and Golden Gate. There were also commanderies from Tennessee, Georgia and New Jersey. Right Eminent Sir Simon Marshall led the twelfth division. St. Louis No. 1 of St. Louis had the right of line, followed by fourteen Missouri commanderies and others from Iowa, Minnesota and Alabama. The thirteenth division was led by Eminent Sir Henry G. Jordan of the Massachusetts and Rhode Island commanderies, the chief of staff was Eminent Henry S. Rowe and he was assisted by eleven aids. The right of line was given to Topeka No. 5 of Topeka, Kan. Besides other Kansas commanderies there were bodies from Baltimore, Nebraska, West Virginia, Colorado, South Dakota.

North Carolina, Montana and Wyoming.

At the conclusion of the parade the conclave was opened in Masonic Temple by speeches of welcome to the grand master and visiting knights, made by Gov. Greenhalge in behalf of the state, Mayor Curtis in behalf of the city and Grand Commander Samuel C. Lawrence in behalf of the grand commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. Grand Master McCurdy responded in a most eloquent speech, eulogizing the order and its mission. In the report submitted in connection with the grand master's address Grand Master McCurdy paid a feeling tribute to several prominent knights who had died since the last triennial conclave and bestowed a eulogy upon William Bryan Isaacs, who was grand recorder at the time of his death. The report also contains some new rulings respecting questions of jurisprudence in the templars' organization and recommends the adoption of the report of the committee appointed to revise the constitution.

The report of the grand recorder, William B. Isaacs, Jr., shows that since the last conclave thirty-seven commanderies have been formed and the increase in the membership has been 3,979. During the same period there have been knighted 20,748; admitted, 3,572; restored, 378; deceased, 4,228; dismissed, 5,957; suspended, 4,509; expelled, 103.

After the transaction of a small amount of routine business the session adjourned until this morning, when the real business of the conclave begins.

THE ROCHESTER STRIKE.

Danger of the Movement Spreading to Other Trades.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The members of the United Garment Workers' association, who have been on strike since last Sunday, yesterday issued an appeal to every employee in the tailoring trade in Rochester, asking co-operation with them in securing their demands. The strikers do not ask for shorter hours or more pay, but demand a weekly payment of salaries, the abolishment of the "black list," which excludes a man from work in all shops in the city should he leave his employer without the consent of the latter, and that the bosses furnish bonds in the sum of $50 for every machine in operation; said bonds to be forfeited upon the failure of the boss to live up to the agreement. They also demand the discharge of all non-union men. The bosses say they will not sign the agreement, and all of their shops are closed. About 1,000 hands have struck out of sympathy for the garment workers, and to-night there will be nearly 10,000 men and women affected by the strike.

Lynchers Not Discovered.

Yreka, Cal., Aug. 28.—The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of "died by strangulation at the hands of parties unknown to us," in the case of the four men lynched here Monday.

PITZEL BOY'S BODY
HAS BEEN FOUNDSEARCH FOR HOWARD PITZEL IS ENDED.

Ghastly Discovery Made in a Suburb of Indianapolis—Body Had Been Burned in a Stove But Identification Is Complete—New Proof Against Holmes.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 28.—Indianapolis will claim the right to try H. H. Holmes for murder. This claim will be based on the horrible developments of yesterday, which include finding of charred remains of 9-year-old Howard Pitzel and evidence which, before any jury in the country, would convict H. H. Holmes of having murdered him and then partially burned his body in a stove.

Detectives Geyer, of Philadelphia, Richards, of Indianapolis, and Inspector Gary, of the Fidelity Insurance Company, have been at work for two weeks hunting for traces of the boy's body. He was traced here with Holmes and disappeared. The city was scoured and work began in the suburbs hunting for a house rented by Holmes on Oct. 10, 11, or 12 of last year.

Yesterday morning the detectives went to Irvington, a pretty suburb of the city, and the seat of Butler College, and before they had been at work an hour their attention was called by a local real estate dealer to a small vacant cottage situated in the woods at the edge of town, and far removed from any other dwelling.

The party went to the house, and a few minutes later the officers found beneath the side porch the missing trunk, which was taken from the side door of the Circle house in this city October 10 by H. H. Holmes, and which was thought to have contained the body of the boy.

Great excitement followed and hundreds flocked to the scene as soon as the discovery leaked out, although the officers endeavored to keep the matter a secret. The house was guarded and the work of searching for additional evidence began. Developments followed thick and fast, and the chain of evidence is damning.

In a barn connected with the house was a large stove of cylindrical shape, of the same pattern as Holmes bought in Cincinnati. He had rented the house under the same alias.

The stove had been moved from the house to the stable by the owner of the house after Holmes left. It was at once concluded that the body had been burned in the stove, and search began for the remains.

Late in the evening Dr. J. F. Barnhill's attention was called by a small boy named Walter Jenny to the stove hole where the stove had been. The hole was filled with refuse. This was pulled out, and the remains of the Pitzel boy were found. In this pit of refuse hundreds of pieces of charred bones were found. The teeth showed that the body was that of a boy between 8 and 10 years of age, and all the other bones confirmed this. All were charred, and pieces of flesh clung to some of them. The skull bones and pelvis added to the same convincing truth. The body had evidently been burned in a cob fire and in the huge stove found in the barn. Howard Pitzel's overcoat was found at a grocery store near by, where Holmes had left it, saying the boy would call for it. He never came.

Owners of the house recognize Holmes from pictures, and several neighbors distinctly remember his face. All identify him as the man who, last October, rented the house, with the same story he told in Toronto and other places, came with the boy and the big stove, washstand and bed, stayed two days, and then disappeared. Several people have identified him, and all doubt is removed. Other developments are expected to-day, and with this evidence Indianapolis will demand Holmes for trial.

TO MAKE A FIRM STAND.

Great Britain Must Arbitrate Venezuelan Boundary Dispute.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Secretary Olney's next move on the diplomatic chess board will be to attempt to compel Great Britain to arbitrate the Venezuelan boundary dispute. It is not presumed for a moment that Great Britain will yield readily to the demand for arbitration, as her power in Venezuela, which she has acquired by steady encroachment upon the Venezuelan country, extends over some of the finest mining lands in the world, which are being worked successfully now, to enrich an English syndicate. But it is learned that the president and Secretary Olney have determined to close up the question in some satisfactory manner before congress meets.

No News of Inman.

New York, Aug. 28.—Nothing has been learned from Robert W. Inman, Jr., who was on board his yacht Adelaide Monday when it was struck by the Iron Steamboat Company's steamer Perseus off Norton's Point. It is quite possible, however, that he is safe, and that, not realizing the anxiety which his absence occasions, he has neglected to send any message to his office or to his bachelor apartments. All the others who were on board the yacht with Mr. Inman are accounted for. At police headquarters an offer of a reward of $500 has been posted.

OHIO LABOR TROUBLE
HAS A FATAL ENDING

THREE MEN SHOT AT WAPAKONETA.

The Affair the Outcome of a Strike of Laborers—Police at Rockford, Ill., Draw Their Weapons—News of the Labor World of More Peaceful Sort.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, Aug. 28.—The strike on the waterworks trenches developed into a tragedy yesterday afternoon, and three men were fatally injured. Those who will die: SEIFERT, ALBERT; shot through bowels.

TILLER, JOSHUA, Pittsburg; shot through the bowels.

VOORHEES, OSCAR, Wapakoneta; shot through bowels.

Monday morning 215 men went on strike and declared no one should go to work until their demands were satisfied. Some of them went to work at noon yesterday, but were driven out. The trustees and the contractor ordered Lewis Vanskiver and another party to fill some trenches and cover some pipe in the second ward. They began work, and a crowd of strikers congregated and commenced beating Vanskiver over the head with clubs and shovel handles, breaking the largest ones by the force of the blows. After Vanskiver had been struck several times he drew a revolver from his pocket and fired into his assailants three times, with the above results. Several of the participants have been arrested and the officials are after others.

NEARLY A RIOT.

Police Officers at Rockford, Ill., Have to Draw Revolvers.

Rockford, Ill., Aug. 28.—There came near being a riot over the Royal Mantel factory strike on Seventh street last night. A man standing on the corner was recognized as one of those who had taken a striker's place, and immediately a cry of "scab" went up. The man started to walk away, but a crowd of several hundred strikers quickly gathered and started on a chase after him. One of the crowd struck an officer, and then the bluecoats pulled their guns and threatened to shoot. Then the trouble ceased. Later in the evening the crowd on Seventh street, which was an immense one, became troublesome, shouting "Scabs!" and attacking and insulting passers-by. A riot call was sent in to the police department, which brought out a dozen officers. Nine of the strikers were arrested. An extra force of officers has been placed on that beat and the crowd has dispersed.

Small Strike at Lima, Ohio.

Lima, Ohio, Aug. 28.—Seventy-five men and twenty teams employed on the Lima Northern railroad went out on strike here yesterday on account of the dismissal of their foreman. There was no violence offered.

Return to Work.

Huntington, W. Va., Aug. 28.—The Huntington Glass Manufacturing Company, of Central City, resumed operations yesterday after an idleness of two months. Two hundred people are employed.

DRIVE AWAY SETTLERS.

Indians Cause Trouble in the State of Idaho.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 28.—Trouble has again broken out between the Kaspell Indians and settlers along the east side of the Pend Oreille river in Idaho over the disputed possession of what the Indians claim is their reservation, but which is in reality government land.

A large delegation of white settlers came to this city and state that they were driven off from their farms by Indians, who threatened them with death if they dared return. The red skins forcibly took possession of the homes and property of the whites, and told the latter that such were their instructions from Indian Agent Bubb. The settlers are preparing to go backed armed and in force and drive the Indians out of the neighborhood. The Indians are ugly and the settlers determined and serious.

The Nebraska Encampment.

Hastings, Neb., Aug. 28.—The interstate reunion proper opened yesterday morning. In connection with the reunion is the annual encampment of Nebraska National Guard. Governor Holcomb made the initial address. The governor was followed by Captain William Henry of the National guard, Congressman Hainer and ex-Congressman McKeighan. For a year of hard times the attendance, both from Kansas and Nebraska, is remarkably large. Rain in the evening prevented the advertised programme being carried out.

Texas Fever in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—Texas fever is killing cattle rapidly in the north end of the city, and a rigid quarantine against cattle from other points, especially from Texas, without a clean bill of health has been inaugurated. There is danger of the cattle trade being seriously hampered here, as well as at other points further east, which are supplied through this gateway.

EX-JUSTICE DUFFY IS DEAD

New York, Aug. 28.—Ex-police Justice Duffy died this morning of paralysis. He was a unique dispenser of justice and was known by reputation throughout the country.

LORD SALISBURY'S COUSIN DYING

Lexington, Ky., August 28.—This morning Arthur Master, son of Lord Master of England, cousin of Marquis of Salisbury fell from a second story window in Middlesboro and was fatally injured.

VICTORY FOR QUAY.

He Will Be Chairman of the State Central Committee.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 28.—Senator Quay has won his fight. Rival caucuses of delegates to the Republican state convention were held here last night, and a resultant count of noses seems to show beyond the shadow of a doubt that to-day the Senator will be elected as chairman of the state central committee to succeed Gilkeson. At the Quay conference there were 159 delegates present, of whom six are contested. This would leave 153 votes for the Senator, or eight more than enough for him to win his fight, as there will be only 239 delegates in the convention. By this showing, on the other hand, the most votes the Hastings-Magee-Martin-Gilkeson combination can get is 136, and this may be reduced to 130.

MAY BE LYNCHED.

Possé After the People Who Whipped Mrs. White and Her Daughter.

Sergeant, Ky., Aug. 28.—Great excitement prevails on the Virginia side of the Cumberland mountains east of this place over a White Cap outrage. Monday night White Caps went to the home of Martha White, a well known woman, aged 65 years, pulled both her and her 20-year-old daughter from their beds, and taking them to a patch of woods near their home, tied them to trees and beat them most brutally. They were finally rescued by a neighbor. They are both alive, but are not expected to survive their injuries. A posse of twenty men, headed by Sheriff Holbrook of Wise county, is scouring the Cumberland mountains for the perpetrators, and if caught the whole party will likely be lynched.

Tramp Found Murdered.

Mansfield, Ohio, Aug. 28.—An unknown man, a tramp, aged about 23, was murdered in a box car on the Pennsylvania railroad near Mansfield yesterday afternoon. He was found unconscious, with his throat cut, upon the arrival of the train in this city, and died at 5 o'clock. Two tramps who were on the train were arrested, but they say that one or two tramps who were seen to jump from the train by others committed the murder. Officers and citizens are in pursuit.

Says Dr. Fraker Lives.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 28.—J. S. Hackley, a traveling salesman, of Louisville, Ky., now here, claims to know a man who helped the famous Dr. G. W. Fraker, of Excelsior Springs, to carry out the alleged scheme to defraud the insurance companies of $58,000 in policies. This man, Hackley says, will produce Fraker for $10,000, provided no prosecution follows. Negotiations with the insurance companies are said to be pending.

To Meet at Chicago Nov. 19.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 28.—The date of the meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers in Chicago, originally set for Oct. 15, has been changed to Nov. 19. It is understood the object in postponing the date of the meeting to Nov. 19 was, in part at least, to give manufacturers time to get their business in shape after returning from the usual vacation. Secretary Wilson is enthusiastic over the prospects of a big meeting at Chicago in November.

Commemorates Brave Deeds.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The monument in commemoration of the bravery of the famous "Maryland 400" in the battle of Long Island was dedicated yesterday with imposing ceremonies. The monument was erected by the Maryland Society. The principal addresses were delivered by Colonel Geo. D. Pearre, of Baltimore, and General Horace Porter, of New York.

Judge Long's Appeal.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Judge Charles D. Long, of the Supreme Court of Michigan, who appeals from the decision of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia in pension case to the Supreme Court of the United States, has not yet perfected his appeal by filing the record, and the Attorney General has served notice on him that unless he does so by Sept. 10, he will have the appeal dismissed.

IS LEFT IN ASHESEXPLOSION OF FINE DUST
SPREADS FIRE.

Paine Lumber Co. Suffers a Forty Thousand Dollar Loss But Will Rebuild at Once—One Hundred Men Thrown Out of Work By the Blaze.

Oshkosh, Aug. 28.—The brand saw mill and planing mill of the Paine Lumber Company, burned this morning. The loss is forty thousand dollars, and the mill was fully insured. The fire started from the explosion of fine sawdust. A hundred men were thrown out of work, but the mill will be rebuilt at once.

GOES BACK TO MEXICO.

Minister Ransom Reappointed by President Cleveland.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The white house mail yesterday bore the commission of Matt W. Ransom to be United States minister to Mexico. The commission was dated Aug. 24. This ends a legal complication by which Minister Ransom, after several months' service at his post at the City of Mexico, was declared ineligible to fill the office to which he had been appointed prior to the expiration of his term as United States senator. The minister was in Washington a few days ago, but is now in North Carolina recuperating from an attack of illness due in part to the climate of the City of Mexico.

Colored Templars Meet.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 28.—The twenty-fourth annual conclave of the Grand Commandery Colored Knights Templar of Ohio and jurisdiction began here yesterday, with Most Eminent Grand Commander of Louisville presiding. The delegates, who number 150, attended divine service at St. John's A. M. E. Church, where Rev. R. C. Ransom delivered a sermon. At the business session in the afternoon questions of a routine nature were taken up. In the evening a concert was given for the benefit of the visitors.

Epworth Leaguers in Danger.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 28.—An attempt was made to wreck the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's passenger train two miles out from Tekeo last evening. While the train was rounding a curve the engineer saw a pile of boulders on the rails. He reversed the lever and applied the air-brakes, reducing the speed so that the obstruction only threw the engine off the track, wrecking it. Over 200 delegates to the Epworth League convention here were aboard the train.

Caused by Impure Water.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 28.—The reported mysterious poisoning of the several hundred people in attendance at the Lutheran mission revival at Tracy, this county, has been traced to the drinking of water which had become contaminated from some unknown cause. The sufferers have all recovered.

Rob a Postoffice.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 28.—The post-office and the general store of T. E. Phillips, at Rush, twenty miles north of here, were burglarized by three men Monday night, who secured something over $1,000. The safe in the postoffice was brand new, but the cracksmen understood their business and looted the place in a few minutes. Citizens gave chase, but the robbers escaped.

Bimetallists Despondent.

London, Aug. 28.—The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says that he learns on excellent authority that the result of the remarks of the Honorable A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, in parliament, to the effect that he did not believe an international conference would result in an international agreement, is that Germany is unlikely to convene a bimetallic conference.

Capture Women Outlaws.

Ponca City, Ok., Aug. 28.—The two notorious women outlaws, Jennie Medkiff and Annie McDoulet, who escaped from Sheriff Lake at Pawnee some days ago, were recaptured in the Osage nation, after giving the officers a hard chase. They were brought before Judge Reiner at Newkirk and pleaded guilty to the charge of selling whisky to Indians, and each was sentenced to a year in the reform school.

China Consents to Investigation.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The state department is in receipt of a cablegram from Minister Denby in which he says that in response to a request made by him to the tsung li yamen, the taotai, Hsu Hsing-I, has been sent to co-operate with Consul Hixson in investigating the Kut-En (Ku-Cheng) riot. The rank of the commissioner, who is an attendant of the circuit (taotai), is by treaty equal to that of the consul.

Will Be a Fine Race.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 28.—Secretary Porter, of the Louisville Driving Association, received a telegram from New York yesterday stating that all arrangements had been made for a free-for-all pace to take place here Sept. 12, between John R. Gentry, Joe Patchen

LOCAL HORSES SHIPPED EAST.
Twenty Rock County Animals Sent to Ohio by W. P. Snyder.

For the past week, W. P. Snyder, of Wooster, Ohio, has been in the city buying horses. He reports a good demand for coach horses and fine drivers and for this class of horses remunerative prices are being paid throughout the east. Mr. Snyder is well satisfied with his visit to Janesville and will leave the city this evening with twenty horses as fine as ever left Rock county. They will be put on an eastern stock farm to bring them into condition and will then be put upon the market in one of the large eastern cities.

SEVERAL GOOD DOGS HAD A SNAP.
Matter-of-Fact Way in Which a Crookston Editor Tells a Gruesome Tale.

Crookston Times: "Devils Lake, N. D., has always been noted for its unique happenings. The other day one of the natives noticed a dog chewing a queer looking object, and on examination it proved to be the head of the last man murdered there. The lawyer who had used it in the prosecution incautiously left it on the back stoop, and several of the best dogs in the town had had a snap."

Cows Killed by Lightning.
The storm at Emerald Grove last night was unusually severe. Arthur McArthur's barn two miles south of town was struck by lightning and two calves were killed.

Peter McNeil's wind mill in the same neighborhood was upset by the wind mill falling over on the house and doing some damage. His barn was also unroofed by the wind. Samuel Cuckoo lost a valuable Jersey cow by lightning. A heavy rain fell accompanied by high wind and damaged grain stacks to some extent.

KNOX, Dunlap, Youmans and Stetson styles can all be found at the popular clothing house on the bridge. Prices $1.50 to $3, in all colors; open tonight until 9 o'clock. Come and see for yourselves what we are doing at our store. Rosenfeld, the low priced clothing store on the bridge; name Rosenfeld on the window.

Every One of Them.
All goods mentioned in our circular are bargains, get in line and obtain some of them while they last. T. B. Burns.

For Sale.
I have a very handsome Broadway light driving wagon of newest design and handsome finish. This rig has solid foot dash, spring back, canopy top, eighteen-ounce curtains, velvet rug, and is in every respect a first-class vehicle. I will sell at a bargain. I need the room. F. A. Taylor.

You'll Find It So.
The purchase of a buggy of any kind is no small matter to be considered. There are so many things to be looked to and have them all satisfactory. The price is of great importance as well. Our repository is chock full of buggies of great worth. We are selling them for very little profit to us. We have the best goods for the least money, we claim, of any one in the city. Its an easy matter to convince you. Come and see. F. A. Taylor.

PROGRAMME FOR THIS EVENING
REGULAR weekly meeting of Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., at Odd Fellows' hall on Main Street.
SEMI-MONTHLY meeting of Janesville Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at Masonic hall.

BRIEF BITS OF LOCAL.

We take your measure and give you a Chicago custom tailor made suit, the very latest of styles. G. Gatzert & Co., the firm who makes them up, are known the country over as makers of high grade garments in every particular. Hundreds of cloths to select from. Frank H. Baack.

Both boats will run for the Labor day picnic next Monday, a vast crowd and a good time generally is expected.

Lost—A light colored cow without horns, went away from the jail Wednesday morning. Finder please inform Sheriff W. H. Appleby.

You are assured of satisfaction in every particular, on those custom made suits. L. Gatzert & Co., of Chicago, do not let a suit go out unless it is perfect in fit, etc. Frank H. Baack.

As the summer season draws to a close we believe in cleaning up our different departments, to get in shape for the new goods. This is the best time to get your wardrobe in shape.

BUNCO MEN ESCAPED HERE POLICE KNEW

OFFICERS GET NO TRAIL OF THE "TEXANS."

Farmer Krause Was Much Incensed Because L. H. Hyde Would Not Give Him $3,000 to Use in Securing a Bet of That Sum On a Card Game.

Police would be very glad to see the swindlers who tried to get $3,000 from Farmer John Krause. Krause was so convinced of the honesty of his companions that the police never heard of the affair until the next day. The game worked on him was the old one of letting him win $3,000 on three-card monte.

"You have won fair enough," said the stranger, "and I am not a man to kick, but I don't feel like handing over my money till you show up that you had it in case I had won."

That seemed fair enough to Mr. Krause. He could see $3,000 in the deal so he drove to Beloit accompanied by Swindler No. 1, who remained on the street while Mr. Krause went to Hyde & Brittan's bank and solicited the loan of Mr. Brittan. Mr. Krause was much excited and wanted the money in a hurry, offering big security, and in the course of the conversation he unfolded the swindler's trick. Then Mr. Brittan emphatically declined to lend the money and told him the scheme was tick to rob him. Mr. Krause left the bank pretty hot under the collar and joined his new found friend who, upon hearing of Mr. Krause's failure to secure the money, quickly left him in disgust and Mr. Krause was saved $3,000 in cash.

Mr. Krause did not inform the police till Saturday afternoon and before that time the swindlers had roped in a Belvidere farmer for $1500. The same scheme was worked on the victim, and when he won his $10,500 it was placed in a box with the farmer's $10,500 and handed to the victim. When the box was opened it was empty.

Two small tin boxes were found a day later in a corn field east of Beloit, and brought to Mayor Smith's office, where Marshal Appleby opened them and found one empty and the other filled with bits of newspaper. The sharper's game was to get their victim's money into a box and then exchange boxes.

CONSIDERABLE CORN CUT.
Hot Southwest Winds Caused Crops To Advance Very Rapidly.

Threshing is nearly finished in this part of the state, according to the weekly crop bulletin. The hot southwest winds last week proved very damaging to the growing corn and wilted up many fields. It also caused it to mature rapidly, and a good deal of fodder has been cut. The heavy rains, falling gradually, were taken up by the ground, which was wet to a depth of from three to six inches, owing to the nature of the soil and locality.

The late fodder corn, potatoes, tobacco, millet and pastures have been greatly benefited and are in a much more promising condition. The rains have also placed the ground in better condition and plowing will be in general operation the coming week. Some tobacco has been cut in Crawford county. Potatoes are nearly out of danger from frost, and corn cutting will be general within ten days. Gardens are in better conditions generally.

In the middle section the rains have placed the ground in good condition and plowing for winter grain is general. Some seeding is being done. Haying is nearing completion. The corn, late potatoes, buckwheat, millet, pastures and gardens were all benefited by the rains and are growing well. The corn is glazing rapidly, and will mature within ten days or two weeks. A good deal is now thought to be out of danger from frost. Some corn has been cut and shocked. The buckwheat is maturing well and filling fast. Millet is being cut and well secured. Pasture is generally good, although some feeding of green corn is done in connection with it. The early planted clover is doing well. Cranberries are ripening in Wausau county and are of fair size, some very good. Fruit and garden truck are abundant. Beans are doing well. Potatoes are ripening and considered out of danger, in localities, from the frost.

CORN SHREDDED BY STEAM.
Jerome Terwilliger to Operate a Machine at Emerald Grove This Fall.

Emerald Grove, Aug. 27.—Jerome Terwilliger is always up to date on a good thing for farmers. His latest is a combined corn husker and stalk-shredder, which he will operate this fall. The machine will be attached to his twenty horse power engine and will husk and shred from fifteen to twenty-five acres of corn a day. The scarcity and high price of hay will induce many to have their corn treated in this manner, which will be a great saving of labor. Farmers are invited to come and see it when at work. happy birthday party was given by Miss Nettie Vern Bansom on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 24. Some twenty-five of her little friends responded to printed invitations to help celebrate her sixth birthday. The time from four till seven was taken up with fun and feasting that will be remembered for years by those present. It was with our little folks one of the social events of the season.

two inches. Corn will show the effects of the shower very soon. Tobacco harvest has begun in one or two fields. We have a few pieces of fine weed in this neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Beach, also their son Lowell, returned to their home in the Garden City on Monday. Peach and cream social was postponed till Monday evening of this week and was well patronized by the church people. Will Clarke of Harmony and Miss Hattie Butler surprised us last week. They drove to the Presbyterian parsonage and had a knot tied which made them husband and wife. Will is an energetic, prosperous farmer of model habits while his wife is one we all admire. They carry to their new home the best wishes of happiness and success from many friends in this vicinity.

WON PRIZES FOR THEIR DANCING

Results of the Games, Etc., at the Hibernian Picnic Yesterday.

The games and prize dancing at the picnic of the A. O. H. at Mayflower Park yesterday, were enjoyable features of the day. The dancing resulted in honors being awarded as follows: Irish Jig—Mrs. McCarthy, first, $2; Charles McCarthy second, $1. Irish Reel—Miss Rider first, $2; Miss Fitzpatrick second, $1.

Breakdown—Miss Fitzpatrick, first, $2; Miss Davey second, $1. After Mr. Schoolcraft had given an exhibition of Irish jig dancing, the tug of war between the city and country teams was held. John Gleason captained the former, while Frank Malone had command of the latter, the city men winning the six dollar prize. A dance at the Catholic League hall closed the day's pleasure, and was largely attended.

R. J. WHITTON IS IN A HIGH PLACE

Janesville Man Has Charge of An Important War Department Division.

It takes a Janesville man to get to the front every time. R. J. Whitton is the latest example of this fact, he having been placed in charge of the supply division of the war department at Washington, an office in which a business amounting to about $300,000 per annum is done. All the supplies used by the department have to go through this department and Mr. Whitton's selection is certainly a high honor. His many Janesville friends will congratulate him and extend their well wishes.

TWO WELL KNOWN CYCLER RIDERS

State Record Very Likely to Be Broken This Week.

Two of the fastest men in Chicago's Class A. riders will be here this week. One is G. E. Bicker who has beat in the great Lange and the other is Lappe himself. Lange lowered the three mile world's record at South Bend, Ind., and out of 117 starts, he won the time prize in the Illinois Cycling club's ten mile road race.

Gossip From Fairfield.

Fairfield, Aug. 27.—A. Conry returned from Kansas last Wednesday, where he had been called by the death of his brother-in-law. Calvin Serl of Chicago recently visited relatives at this place. Mrs. M. F. Armstrong of Albert Lea, Minnesota and Mrs. C. M. McKee of Lelavan, Wis., spent last week with their brother, A. D. Clark, Miss Emma Serl of Conway, Missouri, is spending a few weeks with Wisconsin relatives on her way to Wausau where she intends to teach the coming year. Mr. and Miss Morton of Richmond attended service here last Sunday. Mrs. Hoskins of Texas is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Robbins. Rev. Fish of Chicago visited friends at this place and occupied the M. E. pulpit last Sunday. Mrs. Ole Rye has been entertaining a sister whom she had not seen in seven years. Several from this vicinity attended the funeral of Mrs. Maude Johnson's little daughter, which occurred at Darien last Sunday. This week Saturday evening, the Richmond young people will give an entertainment at the Fairfield church, consisting of a ring drill and musical program, also serve ice cream. This is a pleasing entertainment and we bespeak them a larger patronage.

Fast Men to Be Here.

The state bicyclers' meet to be held here Thursday and Friday of this week will be made particularly interesting through the crack riders who are to be in attendance. Some of the fastest men in the country are entered. G. E. Becker of Chicago, who is fully as fast as Lange will ride and Sanger, Buigebheimer, Schrader, Zerbel and Crocker, Milwaukee's swiftest riders will be here. Zerbel and Crocker ride a tandem and that race alone will be well worth the price of admission. A. J. Nicolett, one of the best trick riders in the country, will be here, and many other pleasing features have been booked.

JANESVILLE WATER IS AS GOOD AS ANY

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS REPORT-ED TO ENGINEER PUTNAM.

Old and New Wells Compared—New One Has a Trifle More Solid Matter But Is Free From Magnesia—Figures on the Two Samples of Water.

Janesville artesian water ranks among the purest and best in the state. A letter enclosing the result of a chemical analysis has been sent to Engineer W. B. Putnam of the water works by E. B. Heimstreet. Mr. Heimstreet says:

FRIEND PUTNAM:—Thinking you might be interested in the analysis of your artesian wells, I would submit the following analysis made last week, amounts being given in grains per United States gallon.

| No. 1.                 | No. 2. |
|------------------------|--------|
| Total solids..... 1.21 | 17.50  |
| Lime Ca O..... 4.38    | 4.41   |
| Magnesia..... 3.21     | .....  |

No. 1 is from the old artesian well and No. 2 from the new artesian well. Both the waters are clear, transparent, without sediment. They each, however, gave quite a considerable amount of scale which was crystalline and adherent, the lime salts being chiefly carbonates and very little sulphates. The analysis was made chiefly to test the fluoride treatment of boiler waters and it is found far preferable to the alum treatment.

CHAT ABOUT FOOTVILE PEOPLE

New Farm Implement Firm—South Marsh Dance Had an After-Clap.

Footville, Aug. 27.—John Silverthorn and wife are visiting their son John at Denver. Dr. K. J. Lynn, of Ann Arbor, Mich., contemplates locating here in the near future. He will make a specialty of surgery and surgical diseases. Some of the people from the south marsh who attended the dance here on Friday night, returned home on Saturday in somewhat of a dilapidated condition. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smiley, of Beloit, spent a part of last week with friends in this vicinity. John Fox holds the lucrative position as mail carrier from Footville to Center. He being a man of ability we are confident he will fill the position well. Charles Hawk and wife returned from Chicago on Friday last. Mrs. Hawk's mother, Mrs. Bleasdale, took charge of their house during their absence. Fred Snyder, of Center, who entered into partnership with the daughter of R. B. Achoson a few months ago, feels that one of the family is not enough, and has decided to enter into partnership with the father selling machinery. Hereafter the firm will be recognized as Snyder and Achoson. Messrs. Hastings and Parnley spent Wednesday night seeing in Evansville. John Drefahl is making extensive improvements about his residence. Henry Becker assisted by Israel Kote is doing the work. William P. Stiles is at home to his friends, he having furnished a suite of rooms over his store. Sol. Strang has his cellar partly dug for his tenant house. Mr. and Mrs. William Miles, of Green county, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Howe. Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Crall, of Iowa, attended services here Sunday afternoon. Grace Nott of Janesville is visiting friends for a few days. Miss Nettie Kilbourne of Elgin is the guest of Clara Egerton. Miss Maud Wells will start for Green, Iowa, on Friday. She will spend a month with her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Milton Wells.

Heracles Belonged to No Club.

But a club belonged to Heracles. You will never be able to weld a club in as lively a manner as that ultra-muscular chappie, but you may recover physical energy through the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, if you will take that thorough tonic with regularity and persistence, not spasmodically—by fits and starts. Begin at once if vigor is falling you find it is the certain parent of disease, that delay is dangerous. Digestion, the function through the perfect discharge of which, vigor is renewed, is insured by the Bitters. So are appetite, sleep and nervous quietude. For constipation, malaria, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble and biliousness, the Bitters is unquestionably the best remedy extant. The restorative effects of a wineglassful three times every day will soon make themselves manifest. Fortify the system and grow strong.

Specifications For Grading Fourth Avenue.

Notice is hereby given that the specifications for the grading of Fourth Avenue between Caroline street and Prospect avenue, are now on file in the office of the city clerk, and that until Sept. 9, 1895, a bid may be made for the work of such grading according to such specifications, will be received by the city clerk, and that such proposals will be acted upon by the common council of the city of Janesville at a regular meeting thereof to be held at the council chamber on Sept. 9, 1895, at 8 o'clock p. m., the work of such grading to be finished by Oct. 9, 1895.

SHE WAS RIGHT.

Aubrey Everdene looked out upon Sackville street and yawned. Only an instant before he had written "Finis" to an article with a dash of the pen across the last sheet, and now the manuscript lay ready for the post among the debris of printer's proofs, new novels awaiting review, etc., with which the writing table was strewn.

One of the best known litterateurs in London and a brilliant conversationalist, his tongue could be as scathing as his pen, and it was said of him with regard to the latter weapon of warfare that in half a dozen polished sentences he could do more toward damning a book than any two of his competitors. A big, loosely made man, Mr. Everdene, with shrewd, gray eyes and the pessimism of a modern. Studying his face as he lounged by the window, his hands in the pockets of his smoking jacket, one could see that he had a lively sense of humor combined with his other characteristics and understood the interest his personality aroused.

Presently a servant brought him a visiting card on a salver. "The lady would be obliged if you would grant her an interview, sir."

"Lady Hilyard," muttered Everdene, reading the inscription. "I can't recall the name. Bother the woman! What does she want? However—ask her to come up, Blake."

When she entered, a fair, elegant woman of perhaps five and twenty, in an irreproachable Parisian toilet, he was still more convinced that he had not the privilege of her acquaintance.

"Mr. Aubrey Everdene?" she queried.

Mr. Everdene bowed.

"Pray take a seat, madam."

"No," she said. "I have come to quarrel with you, and I don't sit down in the houses of my enemies."

"To quarrel with me?" His eyebrows went up. The thought came to him that his visitor was not in her right mind.

"Yes. Perhaps I had better explain myself at once. I am the author of 'Fashion and Footlights.'"

"Fashion and Footlights," he reflected aloud. "Fashion and Footlights." Ha!

Comprehension stole over his face, and with it a slight amusement. He fished among a pile of volumes and brought out three bound with an elegance destined to win the hearts of suburban circulating libraries.

"Here it is. I reviewed it in The Centurian, didn't I?"

"No," she said, "you hanged and quartered it!"

"I am sorry! May I ask how you found out that I was the culprit?"

"Oh, by accident! It's a long story and unimportant, since you don't deny the imputation. Now, Mr. Everdene, I know it is very impertinent of me, a stranger, to come to your private address and worry you. I am doing a very unusual thing, I am afraid, and Mrs. Grundy would be horrified. But 'fools rush in,' you know, and widows are privileged! You must have a little patience with me, because—for the first time her lips relaxed, and she smiled a smile that was sweetness itself—"well, just because I'm a woman and you're a gentleman! Acknowledge the truth now on your honor. Don't you think you were unnecessarily harsh to my poor little literary effort?"

"No," he said bluntly. "I always give my true opinion of things, and I consider your book had many faults."

If she had been a man, he would have said, "I thought it was excessively bad," with the brusqueness of conviction, and probably declined to discuss the matter. But to a lady it was impossible to be rude. He regarded her absurdly unconventional presence with a tolerant kindness.

"Of course I admit that there are faults, but upon one or two points in your criticism I cannot agree with you. I should very much like to discuss them with you. May I?"

"Certainly." His mouth was twitching under his heavy mustache. "But don't you think, pending the verdict, that you had better sit down? You will be fatigued. If you'll permit me to wheel this armchair nearer the fire for you—so!"

Having carefully arranged it so that she should face the light, he seated himself opposite to her—the A B C of diplomacy, but she did not appear to notice it. She was drawing arabesques on the carpet with the point of her ivory handled umbrella.

"I should very much like to know," she said, "what you think of me for coming here?"

"I think you are plucky—yes, and recklessly unconventional."

"Candid, at any rate! And I like that." She looked up. "Now for the first indictment on the list, Mr. Everdene. You accuse me of improbability. I deny it."

His manner bordered upon preoccupation. In truth, he was thinking what wonderful lashes she had and how becoming a flush of excitement could be to a clear, pale skin.

"You assert," she continued warmly, "that it is ridiculous to suppose that a man and a woman could fall in love at first sight, as I make my hero and heroine do, and that such proceedings are limited to boys and girls in their teens and the pages of penny fiction. I should have thought that Mr. Aubrey Everdene would have shown wider sympathies."

"Then you really believe, Lady Hilyard, that adult, sensible people do conceive such abrupt attachments?"

"I am convinced that it happens frequently."

"Oh, come, not frequently?"

"Well—sometimes," she amended.

"I could give you a dozen instances."

He lacked the heart to argue with her. It would have been like breaking a butterfly on a wheel, and, after all, there might be more sentiment in fine de siècle humanity than he thought. Women have wonderful intuition in these matters.

"Well, suppose we let that slide for the moment and proceed to indictment No. 2. What other phrase of mine do you take exception to?"

"You said that I had not the remotest idea of construction, and that 'Fashion and Footlights' was evidently a specimen of that objectionable class of fiction which you regretted to see was growing so prevalent—the amateur novel, born of vanity and a lack of wholesome occupation."

Her voice died away with a tremor. He had only stated the truth, but the fact did not prevent the speechless Mr. Everdene from feeling as if he had committed a particularly brutal murder and the ghost of the victim had come to arraign him before all the people whose opinion he valued most.

"I—I cried," she murmured pathetically.

Her lips quivered. Beads of perspiration rose to the man's forehead.

"Good heavens, if I had only guessed how much I should hurt you! It was harsh, monstrous. No doubt I was in a bad temper, and your unfortunate book was the first thing that afforded me an opportunity to vent my spleen."

"Then you acknowledge that you were needlessly cruel?"

"I was brutal." He would have committed blacker perjury as she wiped that tear away.

"And that I had just cause for indignation?"

"You were perfectly right."

A smile broke like April sunshine over her face.

"In that case I suppose I must forgive you?"

He was ridiculously grateful. He heaved a sigh of relief and hesitated with his hand on the button of the electric bell.

"Lady Hilyard, you know the Arab custom of taking salt with one's friends? As a token of good will permit me to give you the prosaic English equivalent of a cup of tea."

The offer was tempting, the weather was hot, and she had talked a great deal. She yielded. When the refreshment came, accompanied by wonderful sweetmeats from round the corner, she asked permission to pour it out for him, with a winning graciousness which charmed him. It afforded him an odd sense of pleasure, too, to see her white fingers moving about the china. He was unaccustomed to the presence of women in his home.

With the Japanese tables between them they chatted for awhile, and then the clock on the mantelpiece struck 6. She rose with a pretty gesture of dismay, like a second Cinderella.

"Do you know, Mr. Everdene, that I have been here a whole hour wasting your valuable time?"

"I thought it had been ten minutes," he answered, "and the pleasantest of my life."

"Very pretty!" she said, blushing faintly. "And in return for it let me tell you that my address is on my card, and that my 'day' is Thursday; also I must thank you very heartily for your kindness and courtesy to an impertinent intruder. Very few men would have been so considerate."

"Please don't thank me. It is I who owe you a debt of gratitude. You have taught me something I never expected to learn."

"What?"

"That the conduct of your hero and heroine was not improbable at all."

Their eyes met, the woman's drooped, self conscious, pleased.

"You really mean that?"

"On my soul I do."

The most delicious softness was in her voice.

"It makes me so proud and happy to think I have convinced you."

There was a silence. She smoothed a wrinkle in her suede glove. He twisted a button on his coat. Then she aroused herself, with a little laugh, and extended her hand.

"Well, goodbye, Mr. Everdene, and once more, thank you!"

He pressed her fingers ever so lightly—her proselyte.

"Not goodbye," he murmured. "Au revoir!"—Black and White.

Saved His Whisky.

A Greek fisherman recently decided to branch out a little in a business way, so opened a small saloon on the water front. He bought a barrel of whisky from a local dealer, paying 10 per cent down, and agreed to pay the balance when the whisky was delivered. He failed to keep his agreement, and the dealer commenced planning some way to get his whisky or the money. Every time he called on the fisherman he saw the barrel lying in the saloon, and he wanted it.

Finally the dealer commenced snit and attached the liquor. The saloon man pleaded poverty, hard times and everything else, but his creditor was obdurate. An agreement was reached after much parleying that the dealer should take the whisky back, keep the 10 per cent that had been paid and give the saloon keeper a receipt in full and dismiss the suit.

The saloon keeper shed tears as he saw the barrel of whisky carted off and declared he was a ruined man, but he did not close his saloon. The shrewd dealer found that the whisky had been drawn from the barrel and water substituted. He is still wondering how he can get his whisky or the money for it when his receipt is standing against his claim.—San Francisco Post.

THE BANK OF SCOTLAND.

That Ancient Financial Institution in Which Every Scotchman Believes.

The Bank of Scotland, now 200 years old, naturally sought to encourage Scottish industries, and this is shown in the manufacture of its paper for notes. The first large notes were made in 1696, 20-shilling notes, as they were termed, being only issued on April 7, 1704. In 1729 the bank's paper was manufactured at Giffordhall, near Haddington. Attendants had to be present in the bank's interest, and their account was paid by the bank. One item was "ale and bread furnished to the workmen, 10s;" and another was "drink money to servants, £4 17s 6d." The items are suggestive, although it is possible they only represent drink money in name.

In 1735 the bank got its 20-shilling banknotes made at Collingtoun Mill (Colinton Mill), and there is an "account for drink money" in connection with it. A barber came twice from Edinburgh to shave the officials, and received 3 shillings for his professional attendance. Green tea must have cost at that time 24 shillings a pound, for in the bill a quarter pound sells for 6 shillings. At this Colinton Mill the bank appears to have kept all the employees in food during the time the paper was being manufactured. A man was engaged twelve days at the paper mill in dressing meat, and he cut up in that time 200 pounds of it. Meat and mutton only cost 2½d, a pound in those good old days. A hen is charged at 8d., a duck at 9d., one "sollan goose," 1s 8d.; a dozen of eggs, 3d.; six chickens, only 1s. 4d.; and a wild fowl 10d.; cheese cost 4d. a pound, and bacon 8d. a pound. In 1769 the bank's note paper was made at Redhaugh Mill (Redhall Mill).

NEW THING IN EXPLOSIVES.

Tests of a Powder Recently Invented and Useful for Blasting.

Several of the explosives used in blasting within the last few years have been combinations in which chlorate of potash forms a conspicuous element. With petroleum it makes "rack-a-rock," with saltpeter and crude gamboge the "oriental powder," once used in opening wells in Pennsylvania, and with potassium-ferro, ferri-cyanide and sugar an article known as "white powder" and "German gunpowder." This same salt has also been mixed with sulphur and various other materials for the same general purpose. A new compound of the chlorate, with sugar only, is now reported from South Africa. It is called "thorite," probably after the Scandinavian god of thunder, Thor. For several months this explosive has been tested in coal mines at Nereeniging and elsewhere with excellent results. It is said to be almost as powerful as dynamite, weight for weight, cheaper to make and virtually free from unpleasant fumes. Sir Frederick Abel, one of the inventors of cordite and a leading authority on explosives in England, has sent an expert to Cape Town to establish a laboratory for further experiments. Wherein the superiority of thorite over other potassium chlorate powders lies is not indicated in the brief press notices of it at hand. All of this whole group are very sensitive to the slightest friction, and therefore rather dangerous to handle and ship. In some of the mixtures used, especially those containing resinous gums, the particles become consolidated by heat, a result impairing the efficiency of the product, and one which it would not be safe to overcome by trituration. One would anticipate that moisture would affect sugar in a similar way. But possibly thorite is guarded from damp air scrupulously until it is used.

Her Balloon Sleeves.

Mrs. Harvey Donagher, residing at Fostoria, O., had a singular experience. She had been up the street, and returning home later than intended she started to light the gasoline stove without changing her large-sleeved waist. Unnoticed, the sleeves filled with gas generated from the gasoline, and before she knew it she began to float to the ceiling. She screamed for assistance, but, being alone in the house and quite remote from neighbors, nobody heard her, and she was obliged to remain aloft in the room until the gas escaped, when she gently descended. Except a slight bruise on the forehead she escaped uninjured.

Mucilage Made From Onion Juice.

A very convenient mucilage can be made out of onion juice by anyone who wishes to use it, says Good Housekeeping. A good-sized Spanish onion, after being boiled for a short time, will yield, on being pressed, a large quantity of very adhesive fluid. This is used extensively in various trades for pasting paper onto tin or zinc, or even glass, and the tenacity with which it holds would surprise anyone on making the first attempt. It is a cheap and good mucilage, and answers as well as the more costly cements.—Invention.

Hit 'Em Up Again.

To our readers who grumble because we don't have more news in our paper:—Say, how are we going to get any news when you come to town and keep your mouth tight as an oyster, then go home and kick because we did not have the news in the paper, when you were the only one that knew anything about it?—Ex.

Good Gracious.

A man with nothing much to do has figured out this: If two ardent lovers spend four hours daily in each other's company, and indulge during that time in 200 kisses (an exceedingly moderate estimate), and occupy ten seconds over each kiss, they will during a 5-year courtship, have exchanged 365,000 kisses, and had their lips glued together for forty-two days, six hours.

FIGS AND THISTLES.

The devil and whisky are always on good terms.

Prayer is not prayer until it becomes communion with God.

The Christian may lose his gold, but he can never lose his God.

The devil hurts us most when he smites us through those we love.

When God puts a good man in the dark, it is to give somebody light.

God can say things in the fiery furnace he couldn't speak in heaven.

Job sinned not with his tongue because there was no sin in his heart.

When the mountains are cast into the sea, God's hand is under them.

The devil is close by when the Christian worries about things he can't help.

If church membership alone could save, heaven would be full of hypocrites.

A man must be born from above to know for himself that God is above all else.

There are people in every community who want to be religious without Christ.

When Job's wife told him to curse God and die, it hurt him more than all his boils.

There is sometimes as much venom in the point of a pen as there is in the bite of a dog.

Every man has a religion of some kind, but only those who know Christ are Christians.

When you go into the closet for secret prayer, be sure to take the key of your safe along.

The devil in some shape is being made welcome in every home where the Bible is not read.

The man who can take hold of God for others, has to be one who knows him well for himself.

Let the preacher leave Christ out of his preaching, and the devil will help him to fill his church.

A detective association has for its motto: "We never sleep." It would be a good one for a church.

The preacher misses it who tries to substitute for the bread of life something of his own make.

Bad surroundings do not make people bad. They only bring out the bad that is already in them.

There are people who will read so many chapters or verses in the Bible, and call it being religious.

We shall be sure to lose something if we turn from the lion's den when God's hand points that way.—From the Ram's Horn.

LAUGHING GAS.

"I'm going to marry her right off."

"Why, what's your hurry?" "My salary isn't large enough to stand an engagement."

Rich pork dealer (to attractive widow):—"Madam, two thousand hogs and a faithful heart I lay at your feet. Please take us in."

A Ferocious Husband.—"Yes, my dear—whenever we have words he behaves like a perfect savage." How so?" "He makes for his club!"

A General Denial.—"My son," began the clerical-looking stranger, quite solemnly, "do you —" "No," interrupted the irreverent youth; "in the first place, I ain't—and, second, I don't."

Worse than Cholera.—"When your practicing friend across the way has learned how to play the cornet he will entertain the whole neighborhood," said Mrs. Brown. "Yes," said Mrs. Jones; "but by that time there won't be any neighborhood here."

Poor Little Thing.—"What's the matter, Molly?" asked Colonel Yerger of his little 6-year-old daughter. "Pa, my mocking bird is dead."

"Well, never mind, Molly; I'll buy you another one."

"I am calm enough now, but when I saw that poor little dead bird I could have cried like a child," said Molly.

Too Much Toll.—First tramp—"If I had my own way, I'd have three hundred and sixty-five national holidays in the year."

Second tramp—"You would, eh? Then there would be one working day every four years. Oh, you are a nice one, you are! You would make a galley slave of the poor laboring man, wouldn't you?"

New Dress Goods

For Fall of '95.

Wednesday, August, 28th.

First showing in Janesville of the many new fabrics for the coming season in black, in colors, in novelties,—all will be in and on sale at special introductory prices. There have been various Dress Goods Sales advertised about town, but this sale differs from them in the fact that that the showings here will be all new and up to date, and, as stated several times before, we do not advertise sales of small, inconsequent lots of goods which are usually disappointing.

A Special Feature

Of the day. We will devote two counters to the display of an excellent line of fabrics in various weaves, regular values of which are up to a dollar,

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

430—St. Augustine, greatest of the Christian fathers of the time, died in Hippo, Africa, while the city was being besieged by the Vandals; born 354.
1645—Hugo Grotius (De Groot), eminent Dutch scholar, diplomat and lawgiver, died in Rotterdam; born 1583.
1749—Johann Wolfgang von Goethe born in Frankfurt-on-the-Main; died 1832.
1794—Robespierre executed.
1796—James Wilson, "signer" and justice of the United States supreme court, died; born in Scotland 1742.
1839—William Smith, known as "the father of English geology," died at Northampton; England; born 1769.
1859—Rev. Elizer Williams, long supposed to be the "lost dauphin" (Louis XVII of France), died at Haganstown, N. Y.
1886—Professor Calvin Ellis Stowe, husband of Harriet Beecher Stowe and a writer of repute, died; born 1832.
1884—Hon. W. C. Howells, father of the novelist, died at Jefferson, O.; born 1836. Simon Stevens, a prominent lawyer in New York city, formerly of Pennsylvania and Washington, died in New York; born 1834.

THE COAL WAR.

Local coal consumers still hope for a drop in anthracite. Certainly all the conditions promise cheaper fuel this winter than for several years. Hard coal is now delivered in Chicago at $4 a ton. It is quite possible of course that consumers generally will not get any such benefit as this owing to combinations among jobbers such as are governing southern Wisconsin prices, but they should derive some advantage.

The cause of the weak prices dates far back. Of course the coal trade shared in the common depression and as soon as the revival of business came the troubles of the combination began. The Reading railroad, which is one of the greatest of coal-carrying roads, demanded a larger share of the business of the anthracite coal producing and transporting companies than the other corporations interested were disposed to give. The action of the Reading has served to increase the supply of coal on the market until that supply apparently exceeds the demand even at the low rates which are now generally quoted, and the weakness in prices is therefore likely to continue until the over production ceases. The indications are that this is not likely to come soon, or at any rate not in time to enable producers to make any material advance in the price of anthracite coal during the coming winter.

GUNBOATS NEEDED.

The need of the new United States navy for more gunboats has been forcibly emphasized by the inability of the navy department to secure now, in a critical emergency, such war vessels of this type as it has urgent need for. The gunboats especially designed for service in the shallow waters of the Chinese rivers will not be ready for use for one year at least. The navy now possesses six gunboats in commission—the Petrel, Yorktown, Concord, Bennington, Machias and Castine. The government can well afford to build plenty of this kind of craft, for they serve the purposes of battleships and armored cruisers in time of peace with much greater economy. They should have ample sail power, too, to allow them to do the greater part of their cruising under canvas.

LET'S BUY MORE SEEDS.

Why not dispense with so costly a luxury as a diplomatic service? Waller, the ex-American consul, is said to be dying of consumption in a French prison. All our diplomats have been able to do so far is to get a guarded hint that he may be released when the campaign in Madagascar is over. If this is a sample of the state department's power the money spent on that branch of our national administration might very well be used in buying seeds for Secretary Morton. Gardening and not diplomacy must be our forte.

It takes as much skill to market a crop as it does to raise it. Right here many farmers are lame. After working early and late to prepare a crop for market they lose the result of their labor because they don't know how to sell. In order to sell to advantage one must know the cost of the article. How many farmers know the cost of a bushel of grain when it is on the wagon for market? Not many. So they do not know whether they are selling for gain or loss.

The most enterprising individual on record lives in England, and he has put in considerable work in arriving at an estimate of the population of hell. He figures that its population is about two hundred billion. He does not give his system of work in full, and we are at a loss to know whether he canvassed it by wards, or depended on the poll list, the directory or the school enrollment.

No wonder the Janesville boy who knows enough to cover third base, pines for a chance to get in a league club. He has heard, doubtless, that Manager Comiskey, of the St. Paul club, will clear $17,000 this season, and argues that $17,000 is more than Manager Comiskey would make in business between now and 1900.

The distinctively American occupation of train robbery is suffering from unfavorable legislation. The men who recently tried their hands at this branch of industry in Michigan and Nebraska are being killed off or captured at a rate no less speedy than discouraging.

British manufactures are losing their hold in South America. Even Chili is increasing its orders in this country. Among the shipments to Chili a few days ago were twelve American ten-wheel mogul locomotives, four express locomotives and two engines for light work.

There is justice in the order of the German government that the steamship companies must refund the passage money paid by German emigrants rejected and returned by this country. There would be few rejected cases if the steamship companies were careful.

Nobody wants to see internal taxes or duties meddled with until something permanent can be done; but if the treasury shortages last until December or January, new revenue will have to be provided or more bonds will have to be sold.

It is interesting to watch the political has-beens come to the surface every now and then to declare that they positively will not be candidates for the presidential nomination.

This warfare against bloomers is winning Chicago as much fame as Omaha got out of the Mother Hubbard ordinance.

Lawyers are likely to live on the fat of the land in Janesville if this water works matter gets fairly into court.

PICK YOUR PLACE NEXT TIME.

Little First Ward Girl Has Advice To Offer as Consolation.

"Hello," said a First ward man to a bright little girl this morning, "Where did you come from?"
"I came from Australia." "Where did you come from?"
"Oh, I'm an Irishman." "That's too bad," said the little sympathetically. "Never mind. My Sunday school teacher says we're all going to be born again, and you want to be careful to be in England next time you're born."

More Showers and Cooler.

Fair, preceeded by showers tonight cooler and probably light frost in the central portion of the state.

The temperature as recorded by S. C. Burnham & Co. during the last twenty-four hours was as follows:
7 a. m. 70 above
1 p. m. 80 above
Max. 80 above
Min. 65 above
Wind west.

Tonight Only.

Starved shirts made by Wilson Bros., and the Trojan Shirt Company, makers of the Gold and Silver shirts, are now placed in our window. The last chance is tonight. There are none among them worth less than $1.50 to $2.50. See for yourself. You need not come inside to see them, as they can be seen in our window from the outside. Your choice for tonight, 50 cents. Remember, for tonight only, at the low priced clothing house of Rosenfeld on the bridge. The name Rosenfeld is on the window.

She Cut the Cord.

Among the many anecdotes told of that famous Italian contralto, Mme. Albani, is one which, reading like fiction, is nevertheless perfectly true. About twenty-five years ago at a state concert at Buckingham palace, Mme. Albani was commanded to appear. And appear she did, and sang exquisitely. As she turned to go after her last aria she slipped her hand into her pocket and drew forth a pair of scissors, sharp and new. Bending down she quickly snipped the rope which separated the artists from the audience. "I have done it," she whispered triumphantly to a friend, and escaped as gracefully as might be. Mme. Albani, I need scarcely add, had republican tendencies.—Lady Mary, in the Woman at Home.

A NEW DYSPEPSIA CURE.

Over 6,000 People in State of Michigan Cured in 1894 by this New Preparation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new discovery for stomach troubles, is claimed to have cured over 6,000 people in the state of Michigan alone in 1894. These tablets have become so popular with physicians and people who have any form of indigestion that they have the endorsement of such physicians as Dr. Harlandson and Dr. Jennison as being the safest, most reliable remedy for sour stomach, chronic dyspepsia, gas, bloating, palpitation, headache, constipation, and in all cases where the appetite is poor or the food imperfectly digested.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any kind of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. They are not a secret patent medicine but composed of vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin, Golden Seal, ginger and the digestive acids. ## DZENS OF FIRES SET BY BOLTS

st Night's Storm Results in Widespread Damage.

RMS SWEEP BY BLAZES AND CATTLE KILLED.

& N. W. Depot at Hanover Destroyed—Clyde McCoy, of Magnolia, loses all but his residence—A. F. Ayer's Barn at Beloit Burned And a Pony Killed—Arthur McArthur, of Emerald Grove, loses his Barn—Blazes and Other Damage in the City.

The lightning played high jinks last night and did much damage. At first peal of thunder and flash of lightning startled Janesville people, while rain fell in torrents.

Early this morning the reports of damage done began to come in. Fires in the country were plenty. One of them were:

ANOVER—Chicago & Northwestern depot struck by lightning and totally destroyed, together with considerable freight. Loss and insurance unknown.

EMERALD GROVE—Barn owned by A. F. Ayer, city editor of the Free Press, struck by lightning and destroyed, together with contents, and a stand pony.

AINVILLE—Large barn and tobacco shed destroyed.

MAGNOLIA—Clyde McCoy's barn struck by lightning, and totally destroyed, with contents. The buildings on the farm, except McCoy's house, were destroyed and the loss will be several thousand dollars.

JANESVILLE—Five fires are reported near a village, but no particulars have been received.

EMERALD GROVE—Arthur McArthur's barn struck, and two calves were killed.

IRON—Three farm fires are reported to have been caused by lightning between Afton and Dover, of which nothing authentic had been heard up to 4 o'clock.

JANESVILLE—Residence occupied by Mrs. Cummings on Wall street, ignited by a bolt. One out of the first alarm boxes temporarily disabled. Telephone and electric light systems somewhat damaged.

The City Was Lucky.

Janesville was fortunate as nobody was hurt and no material damage was done. The light from a large fire could be plainly seen west of the city and the illumination lasted for over an hour. This fire was in progress when the alarm for the Cummings fire was sounded.

Wall street came in, and after that aze had been extinguished Assistant Engineer Osgood drove out to the school, but seeing that the aze was out in the country, returned once. It was said that fires raged at the Richards, Fisher and other farms in that vicinity, but these reports could not be verified.

A barn on the "Search farm" was destroyed.

The most peculiar trick of the lightning in this city, was the burning of a limb from a growing tree at the corner of Holmes and South Franklin streets. The lightning struck the cable upon which the electric light hung, and running along a cable burned the bolts from the pole of the pole, letting the light fall, and the current ran along the guy wire to a growing tree, shriveling the tree wood so that it became dry and liable to burn.

A tiny flame ran along the bark of the tree and the whole limb burst into flame. The neighbors got out their hose and began throwing water on the blazing limb but couldn't extinguish the fire which continued to run until the limb was destroyed.

Mrs. Cummings' House Fired.

Mrs. Cummings' house on Wall street, near the Chicago & Northwestern depot, was fired by a bolt of lightning at 9 o'clock last night, but a blaze was extinguished with but a comparatively small loss. The building is owned by the Schlitz Brewery company.

The loss was about $75 and is thought to have been covered by insurance. No alarm was turned in by the blaze as boxes 15 and 18 both of which were pulled were on the circuit which had been disabled by the burning out of a fuse block on a heater. Electrician Kline struck the alarm with the push button at the west side station giving the box 15 located at Schaller & McKays' corner. No damage was done to the alarm service other than the burning of the fuse block which was a small matter.

Killed By a Bolt.

Local railroad men learned today when J. O'Malley was struck by lightning in Whitewater last night he was standing with one foot on the telephone lever and his hand on the telegraph key. This made a perfect circuit and he was killed almost instantly. He spoke but four words: "Send for the doctor."

BRIEF CITY NEWS NOTES.

MAKING SHOES—Hugh M. Joyce started up his new factory yesterday and will soon be turning out fine shoes for children. Mr. Joyce understands the business of shoe-making and all its branches, and that he will make a success of his new venture is a reasonable conclusion.

MRS. CHARLES ELLER has a night coming cereus with twenty-seven buds that will unfold its petals tonight. Anyone wishing to see it is welcome to call at 204 Mineral Point avenue this evening.

JAILED—Officer Hogan arrested Will Donnell for being drunk and disorderly last night and this afternoon Donnell pleaded guilty and Judge Phelps sent him to jail for fifteen days.

PICNIC—The Norwegian Sunday school picnic at Crystal Springs tomorrow.

The first boat leaves at 10 a. m. and the next boat leaves at 10 a. m. and the next at 2 p. m.; fair 25 cents.

We have in our case now a larger and better selected line of five cent cigars than ever before. It costs you no more to smoke a good five cent cigar than to smoke a poor one, and as we have remarked before, we buy our cigars right and keep them right, and sell them right. C. D. Stevens' Pharmacy.

BIG CROWD—If the races are attended by all who have shown an interest in the prizes sold by A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jeweler" and displayed in their Milwaukee show window, their will be a crowd at the fair grounds Thursday and Friday.

PANTS made to order $3.75 and $5 and suits $15, $18 and $20. We take the measure and guarantee you a fit L. Gatzert & Co. of Chicago make clothing that we can safely say this to you on. Frank Baack.

PEOPLE are surprised at the prices we are selling at; they are so cheap when leather has advanced so. Just call and see for yourself. 57 West Milwaukee street. Lloyd & Son.

SERVICE RESUMED—Divine service will be resumed in Christ church on Sunday next. Christ Church choir will meet in the church for rehearsal Friday evening at 7:30.

BIG POTATOES—E. S. Libby, an old Rock county farmer but now of Dane county brought a potato weighing thirty four and one half ounces into the Gazette office today.

TOO LATE—A number of letters have been received by Secretary Pierce from racers clamoring for admittance to the Janesville events, but they came too late.

CHILDREN SUFFER—Local doctors report that diphtheria and cholera infantum have been the causes of most of the sickness among children this summer.

PEOPLE looking for good bargains at low prices always find their way to F. A. Taylor's repository, where the largest stock of new goods are to be found.

HOUSE ON WHEELS—A camping outfit, which consisted of a house on wheels, passed through the city today headed towards Lake Koshkonong.

FAIR BOOMERS—A delegation left on the noon train for Woodstock, to attend the McHenry county fair, and advertise the Rock county fair.

FIGHT—Constable Wallace Cochran stopped a fight in the Milwaukee Court street alley this morning, and sent the combatants in opposite directions.

NEW SIGN—The old postoffice sign, which has done duty for a number of years, was removed this morning to be replaced by a new one.

MILD CASES—The cases of diphtheria in the city are all mild and the attending physicians report their speedy recovery.

ITS a matter to be kept fresh in the minds of all that Labor Day picnic next Monday, the best of times guaranteed.

MORE CRAWLERS—A second crop of caterpillars has appeared in several places throughout the city.

GOOD SPEAKERS and good music at the Labor Day picnic next Monday, a first class time for all.

FOR CYCLISTS—A new form of insurance policy is drawn especially to cover bicycle accidents.

WE will continue the slaughter of our tan shoes the rest of the week. Lloyd & Son.

GOOD MUSIC with peaches and cream at the vacant store on the bridge Saturday night.

HEAVIER CANES—The whangee cane is being superseded by a heavier and darker stick.

AUTUMN COMES—The night air is full of the promise of fall.

ELEGANT STOCK of gas fixtures at low prices at Wheelock's.

TIME FLIES—Vacation season will soon be over.

Good Insurance.

RUSCHE GOT $499.50 ON A FORGED DRAFT

WELL KNOWN FARMER PUT IN JAIL THIS MORNING.

Sheriff Shannon, of Jefferson, Arrested Him on the Charge of Victimizing a Bank at That City—Rusche Denies the Whole Story, But Things Look Black For Him.

The heavy doors of Rock county jail closed behind Thomas Rusche this morning.

Forgery was the charge against him and a worthless draft for $500 upon which Rusche is said to have secured $499.50 bore mute evidence of some one's rascality.

Rusche is a young farmer living on C. H. Johnson's farm between this city and Beloit. On Monday last Rusche visited Jefferson and it is charged presented the draft at the Jefferson bank. The paper was drawn by the L. C. Hyde & Brittain bank of Beloit, dated August 17, 1895 made payable to Charles Webb; and called for $500 less the exchange.

Rusche, as it is claimed, visited the bank on Monday, but the cashier told him that he must be identified. He then left, but later he was seen in company with Liveryman Fernholts of Jefferson, who, when being told of Rusche's presenting the draft, said that Rusche was all right. Tuesday Rusche presented the paper again, and the assistant cashier telling the cashier what Fernholts had said, the money was paid him. The bank officials had not asked Fernholts what Rusche's name was, and accepted the draft, supposing that Webb was Rusche's name.

Draft Was Not Genuine.

Then it was found that the draft was a forgery. Fernholts, who knew Rusche, was much surprised as he supposed Rusche was all right, and Sheriff Shannon was notified. Fernholts said he could identify Rusche and went to Beloit this morning with the sheriff. They at once drove to Rusche's place, but found that Rusche was absent. Fernholts told Mrs. Rusche that Sheriff Shannon was a cattle buyer and that he wished to see her husband. She insisted that Rusche had gone to Janesville, so the sheriff and Fernholts at once came to the city. They found Rusche at the depot, and Fernholts pointed him out to the sheriff and promptly arrested him. Rusche had a ticket to Rock Island, Ill., and in a few minutes more he would have had a good start of the officers. Sheriff Shannon, Fernholts and Chief Acheson then took Rusche to jail where he and his baggage were searched. He had the ticket to Rock Island and eighty-three dollars in money in his pocket, while his grip contained considerable clothing and a cheap revolver with all the chambers loaded.

Rusche Denied Everything.

While at the jail Rusche was closely questioned. He protested his innocence and insisted that he knew nothing whatever about the draft on "Charles Webb," despite the fact that Fernholts, the man who had been the innocent cause of the bank's chasing the worthless paper, identified him fully.

"My wife gave me $600 to pay my bills with," said Rusche. "I paid a man named Dixon $175, the Transfer & Implement company $65 and Captain Vankirk $20.

"Where did your wife get the money?" Chief Acheson asked.

"She earned it," Rusche replied.

Chief Acheson then suggested that Sheriff Shannon visit Rusche's home, and see how Mrs. Rusche's story tallied with his, so Sheriff Shannon and Sheriff Appleby left on that mission at 10 o'clock.

Chief Acheson says he knows Rusche quite well, and has seen him frequently. He was here yesterday and was seen by Chief Acheson. Sheriff Shannon says the case against Rusche is a strong one, as the bank authorities and Fernholts can both identify him completely.

It is said that Rusche has had the draft for a week, and that it originally called for five dollars, but had been raised to five hundred dollars.

'NEATH THE SHADOW OF DEATH

John Stally.

John Stally, president of the Wisconsin Carriage Top Co., died at ten minutes before nine last night, having been ill four weeks of pneumonia.

Mr. Stally was born in Brant County, Ontario, October 21, 1854 and removed to Brantford, Ontario, in 1869. He was in business there as a young man but in 1881 removed to Chicago.

Janesville attracted him and before the end of 1881 he was established here. In 1885 he organized the Lawrence Carriage Top Co., afterwards the Wisconsin Carriage Top Company, and became its president. He was energetic and quick to see an opening and was highly esteemed among his associates.

A wife and four children survive, the children being Mamie, Martin, Kittie and Agnes.

Funeral services will be held at the home 304 School Street tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SAY FRANK HITSON SOLD BEER
Evansville Man is Charged With Violating the Excise Law.

Another case in which a pig figures will soon be before the court. This time Frank Hitson is the defendant and the pig that got him into trouble is said to be a blind one. Hitson lives in Evansville and is charged with selling liquor without a license. He was brought to Janesville by Marshal Brink last night and is now behind the bars of the county jail in default of $800 bail. The case will come up at Evansville Saturday.

J. A. DECKER'S TEAM RUNS AWAY
They Went Crashing Through the Court House Park Last Night.

A team belonging to J. A. Decker, started on a run last evening while in front of the Park hotel. They headed for the court house park, and people who were sitting on the benches, made lively time in getting out of their way. The team was nitched to a survey and managed to keep clear of all the trees until opposite F. F. Stevens' house when the carriage struck a good sized elm.

MAGNOLIA MYSTERY CLEARED UP
Open Grave Episode Was the Work of Mischievous Boys.

The Magnolia mystery has been "petered out." It is now said that boys put the clothing in the grave, etc., as a joke and that was all there was to it. Many people insist that the grave was dug for a purpose and that it was to be used by cattle thieves to bury the bones and offal of heaves killed in the pasture. Its discovery knocked all the plans in the head and the theory is now, that the boys saw a chance to have some fun and carried out the second chapter for the fun of the thing.

HEARTS FULL OF JOY.
Buell-Opie.

H. C. Buell, first assistant in the Janesville high school, came back to the city today and surprised his friends by presenting them to "Mrs. Buell." He was married in Austin, Minn., last evening, the bride being Miss Henrietta Opie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Opie. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Opie formerly lived in Mineral Point, but removed to Austin when the veteran engineer was made general foreman of the Milwaukee & St. Paul road.

Mr. and Mrs. Buell were on their way today to Lake Geneva where a few days will be spent at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Buell, Sr., where a reception will be given them Thursday evening. From Lake Geneva a trip will be made to Chicago and one or two other points returning to Janesville next week. Mrs. Fisher's house, 9 South Academy street has been rented and the newly wedded pair will be at home to friends after October 7. They will find a hearty welcome awaiting them for the bride has many friends here while the groom is known as a capable, energetic and progressive educator whose work has been valuable in the city schools.

WATER WORKS CASE LAID BEFORE THREE

ALD. S. C. BURNHAM IN FAVOR OF ARBITRATION.

He Suggests That the City Might Appoint an Engineer, the Water Company Appoint Another and a Third Man Be Agreed Upon By Both Parties.

Ald. Burnham says that while he voted for the resolution to annul the water company's franchise, he would be glad to see the matter settled by arbitration. "I don't see why the city might not appoint a competent engineer, the water company appoint another and the two together choose a third, to form an arbitration committee. They could between them arrive at what the works are worth today and what would be a fair price for the city to pay. The city could afford to do the fair thing in the matter, and I don't think there is a disposition to do anything else."

BEAUTY.

HOW TO INCREASE IN WEIGHT AND OTHERWISE IMPROVE ONE'S PERSONAL APPEARANCE.

Every normally constituted man and woman wants to look well. This is natural and right. We have little sympathy for those people who through indolence or gluttony have permitted themselves to take on too much flesh. They know that by living abstemiously and taking plenty of exercise they can get back to their normal weight.

We do however have a great deal of sympathy for those poor, pale, thin sufferers who either have no appetite or else whose food distresses them to such a degree that they are forced to live on a most frugal diet.

"Going into a decline." How often do we hear this expression. What does it mean? It means that people are losing flesh, growing thin, wasting.

Their trouble arises from the fact that they are unable to digest sufficient food and when the stomach is cut of order and fails to do its proper work, foods are worse than useless. They simply ferment in the stomach and fill the system with poisonous principles.

What these people need is something that will digest their food after it has been eaten, and it is in just such cases that the Digestive Cordial as made by the Mount Lebanon Shakers is proving remarkably successful.

It is so prompt in its action that a sense of relief almost immediately follows the first dose, and a rapid increase in weight is soon noted.

The Shakers have issued an interesting pamphlet which may be obtained upon inquiry at any drug store.

AN ORDINANCE to adopt the provisions of part of Sections 23 and 25 of Chapter 326 of the laws of 1893, as amended by the laws of 1893 and 1895, in addition to the provisions of the special charter of the city of Janesville.

The mayor and common council of the city of Janesville do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That part of Section 23 of Chapter 326 of the laws of 1893, as amended by the laws of 1893 and 1895, which provides that the common council may, by a two-thirds vote dispense with the office or compensation of any officer or board of said city or by the common council or a committee thereof; and also that part of Section 25 of Chapter 326 of the laws of 1893, as amended by the laws of 1893, which provides for the election of the controller by the people, are hereby adopted in addition to the provisions of the special charter of the city of Janesville.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication, which publication shall be for three successive days.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance, of which the foregoing is a copy, will be acted upon by the common council of the city of Janesville at a regular meeting of said council to be held at the council chamber in said city on the 10th day of September, 1895, at 8 o'clock p. m.

How to Mend Lace.

Now that real lace is coming into fashion it is quite an accomplishment to know how to repair the delicate web. Lace mending requires both good eyesight and patience to accomplish it properly. Lace thread, a loose twisted thread which comes especially for the purpose, is used; the groundwork mesh should be imitated as nearly as possible. To keep the lace in place it is best to baste it to a piece of enameled leather, such as is used in embroidery repairing carefully the damaged portion. If the mesh is badly torn take a scrap of fine Brussels net the size of the tear, lay on it a scrap of the mending tissue, procurable at any of the dry-goods shops, and pass a warm iron over it. If carefully done the mended spot will be scarcely perceptible.

Storage Battery Cars Successful.

Not much has been heard lately of the storage battery car, but it has not been abandoned by any means. The Madison avenue line, in New York, is about to use it in an improved form. In their new cars the battery will not be carried in the cars but on a detachable truck underneath. Three storage battery lines are running in Paris and one in Birmingham, and the system has been found entirely satisfactory in power and economy. One of the Eu-
